Your Book Group Can Help

You can help us build our collection of discussion kits by donating multiple copies of books your group has already read. This is a great way for your group to recycle and share books that you have enjoyed with the community.

Bring your used books to the Reference Desk at the library and be sure to tell us that they are for the Traveling Tales Book Discussions to Go kits.

Any books not used for Traveling Tales will be

Traveling Tales

As a service to our local area book discussion groups, the Library has developed a collection of book discussion kits to be checked out.

Each kit contains up to 12 copies of the book along with a Reading Guide.

Kits may be checked out for 8 weeks.
Kits are checked out to one member of the group.

Kits cannot be returned through the outside book drop box, and kits must be returned containing all books - group members can not return books individually.

For more information, please call 423-434-4454 or visit us at the Information Desk.

The blue book bags for the Traveling Tales kits are provided by The Friends of the Library.

Grace of Silence: A Family Memoir by Michele Norris

Michele Norris discovered that there were painful secrets within her own family that had been willfully withheld. These revelations—from her father's shooting by a Birmingham police officer to her maternal grandmother's job as an itinerant Aunt Jemima in the Midwest—inspired a bracing journey into her family's past, from her childhood home in Minneapolis to her ancestral roots in the Deep South. A deeply personal memoir by the co-host of NPR's All Things Considered.

H is for Hawk by Helen Macdonald

Macdonald's story of adopting and raising one of nature's most vicious predators has soared into the hearts of millions of readers worldwide. Fierce and feral, her goshawk Mabel's temperament mirrors Helen's own state of grief after her father's death, and together raptor and human "discover the pain and beauty of being alive" (People). H Is for Hawk is a genre-defying debut from one of our most unique and transcendent voices. The Rosie Project by Graeme Simsion

Meet Don Tillman, a brilliant yet socially inept professor of genetics, who's decided it's time he found a wife. He designs the Wife Project to find his perfect partner: a sixteen-page, scientifically valid survey to filter out the drinkers, the smokers, the late arrivers. Rosie Jarman possesses all these qualities, but Don is intrigued by Rosie's own quest to identify her biological father. When an unlikely relationship develops, Don is forced to confront the realization that, despite your best scientific efforts, you don't find love, it finds you. (Simon & Schuster)
