

Junior Traveling Tales Book Discussions to Go

As a service to our local area book discussion groups and educators, Youth Services has developed a collection of book discussion kits to be checked out.

Each kit contains up to 10 copies of the book along with a Reading Guide. Kits may be checked out for 4 weeks.

Kits are checked out to one member of the group.

The complete kit must be returned to the Circulation desk; kits may NOT be returned through the outside book drop. Individuals may not return copies separately.

For more information, please call 423-434-4458 or visit us at the Youth Services Desk.

The blue book bags for the Junior Traveling Tales kits are provided by The Friends of the Library in fond memory of Kay Herd.

Your Book Group Can Help

You can help us build our collection of discussion kits by donating multiple copies of books your group has already read. This is a great way for your group to recycle and share books that you have enjoyed with the community.

Bring your used books to the Youth Services Desk at the library and be sure to tell us that they are for the Junior Traveling Tales Book Discussions to Go kits.

Any books not used for Traveling Tales will be donated to the Friends of the Library book sale.
