1,000 Books Before Kindergarten

Visit jcpl.org to sign up for this ongoing reading challenge designed to encourage parents of children birth to 5 years to read at least 1,000 books before their children enter kindergarten. Early literacy is crucial to later academic success. Get started today!

Volunteer State Book Awards (VSBA) Reading Challenge

Ends Monday, May 3
Register at jcpl.org.

Children and teens (grades K-12) can register, earn digital badges, and keep track of reading books on the Volunteer State Book Awards nominee list. Participants will cast their votes in May for the title they think should win.

Curbside Closed

There will be no curbside service on Tuesday, April 6 in preparation for reopening your Library. Please see the other side of this newsletter for reopening details.

Staff Spotlight

Tyler Wilmoth, Technical Services Manager

“I am an ETSU graduate and after working in North Carolina for some time, I am so happy to be in Johnson City again. I love graphic novels, literary fiction, and poetry. Some of my favorite books include ‘The Goldfinch’ by Donna Tartt and ‘Ready Player One’ by Ernest Cline. I also love dogs, hiking, writing music, and baking. The great thing about Technical Services is that we get to work with every item as it becomes available to library users. It is a privilege to contribute to processing items, digital and physical, on their journey to circulation. I am so excited to be a part of the awesome team at JCPL!”
